Naming convention for documents, tests and assignments.

The name consists of a number indicating the semester i.e 3,
Followed by a dot and then the module number i.e. 01 according to previous slide.
Then followed by a hyphen ”-”, and a consecutive number.
If the number is preceded by a letter, the document is an assignment ”A” or a test ”T”.

Examples: 3.01-A01, 3.02-T02, 3.00-01

Please pay attention to this when you upload documents and take tests.

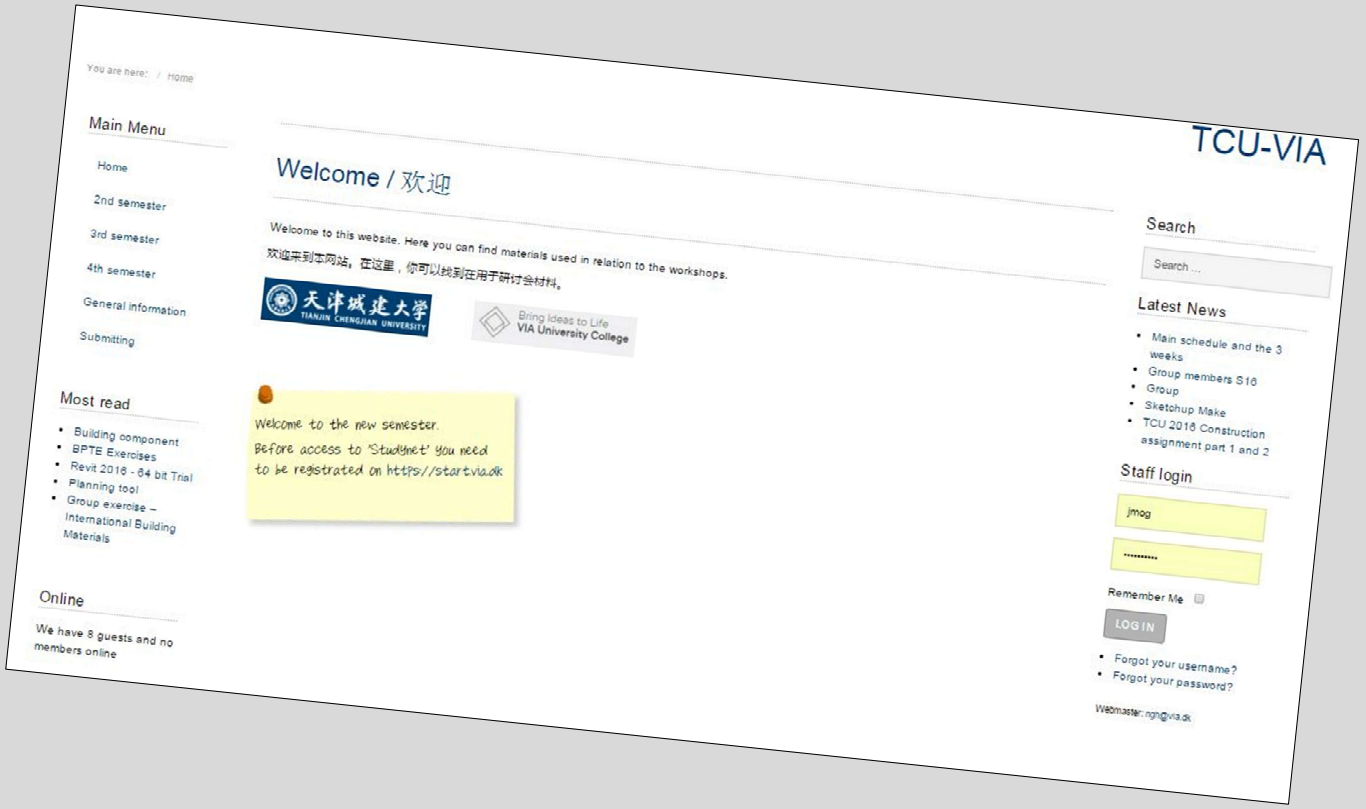
Your mark for the final exam will be based on:

1) Language skills
2) Presentation
3) Overall comprehension of subjects
4) Attendance

Where to find the documents:

http://tcu-via.com/index.php/3rd-semester/

And then sub folders according to module.



Each student fill in a questionaire and present themselves during the first week.

(To be uploaded, 3.00-A01)
